

Spring Scent Work Games Galore!

4 week session of scent work fun!

2-3 new games/class designed to

- build dog's stick to source duration
- expose dogs to searching novel items
- encourage dogs to search independently
- improve ability to read your dog
- teach/refine line handling
- start dogs in distance searching

And, if teams are ready, you'll do simple interior searches at the last class!

Four Saturdays
May 5, 12, 19 & June 2, 2018
1:30-2:30pm

Yankee Dog
94 Vernon Street
Brattleboro, VT

Requirements:

- Dog understands concept of stick to source
(Teams taking PVKC's Starting Your Dog in AKC Scent Work are at the ideal level)
- Tin with odor (Birch)
- Harness
- Leash or 10' long line

Bring these 4 items:

- ▶ lots & lots of small, soft highly yummy treats ▶ your clicker if your dog is clicker trained ▶ crate ▶ water

Instructor Dorianne Almann and Taika, her 2-1/2-year-old Rottweiler, are competing in four of the five US organizations offering titling scent/nose work opportunities--AKC, NACSW, PSD and USCSS. Team Taika is trialing at AKC's Novice level, prepping for their NACSW's NW2, competing at PSD's Excellent level and trialing at USCSS's Novice and Intermediate levels. Taika has earned many placements, has been HIT and has her NW1 with Pronounced in Exterior.
